

Investment Manager

Summary:

Cur8 Capital is a Sharia-compliant asset manager specialising in private wealth and asset management for the mass affluent market. Our diverse, multi-asset class offering includes cash management, fixed income, real estate, private equity, and venture capital.

Cur8 Capital is a wholly-owned subsidiary of IslamicFinanceGuru (IFG), a globally recognised Islamic fintech dedicated to empowering Muslims to make smarter financial decisions. Backed by a passionate community, we are addressing a critical global issue: Muslims, on average, are 20% poorer than the rest of the world. Through innovative investments, we are driving change and bridging this gap, one opportunity at a time.

The market potential is immense. Muslims account for 25% of the global population, with a rapidly growing middle class. Cur8 is breaking AUM records every quarter as we work towards our ambitious, global mission. With this momentum, Cur8 is building a brighter, wealthier future for Muslims worldwide.

Join Our Investment Management Team

A unique opportunity has opened within our investment management team, offering the chance to contribute to meaningful, impactful growth and be at the forefront of shaping our future.

We're seeking an individual with experience in investment banking, capital markets, asset management, or corporate finance, who has spent time investing in public or private markets. You'll need a track record of getting things done while delivering above-market returns for investors.

About the Role

You'll work closely with our Head of Investments to help grow our AUM from $125m to $1bn while building and maintaining deep, strategic relationships with fund partners and real estate joint ventures. Your role will include setting the direction for our investment strategy, managing complex deals, and ensuring long-term success.

What You'll Be Doing

- Shaping the investment management strategy and policies for Cur8.
- Developing forward-thinking strategies to position Cur8 for the next decade and capitalising on opportunities.
- Originating and conducting due diligence on deals, funds, and real estate investments for the platform.
- Providing careful management of our portfolio companies, fund partners, and real estate assets, ensuring performance and alignment with goals.
- Oversight and ongoing management of real estate joint ventures, collaborating with exceptional fund managers and partners.
- Preparing and reviewing financial models, particularly for real estate projects and income investments.
- Drafting key documentation, including Investment Memorandums, pitch decks, and pitchbooks.

- Coordinating with legal, accounting, and tax advisors to structure investments effectively.
- Interfacing with larger investors, supporting fundraising efforts and providing regular reports.
- Working with our content and marketing team to promote investments and highlight unique opportunities.

What We're Looking For

- Experience: At least 3-5 years in deal-making, M&A advisory, investment management, corporate finance, or a similar role.
- Skillset: Strong analytical capabilities to select the right fund partners, combined with the soft skills and management expertise needed to execute deals successfully.
- Creativity & Knowledge: Familiarity with structuring, tax, and funds law is a plus, along with a creative, can-do attitude for tackling complex strategies.
- Ownership: A self-starter who enjoys taking full ownership of workstreams, with an eye for detail and the confidence to question existing approaches.

Why Work With Us?

We're not your typical asset manager. There are no suits, face time requirements, or internal politics here. We're a mission-driven team that cares deeply about making a real impact—and we expect every team member to share that focus.

Benefits

- Highly competitive salary.
- A benefits package, including equity in the business.
- Generous self-development budget and an environment that encourages personal growth.
- Work on products that make a real difference in society.
- Join a fast-growth startup, collaborating with smart and driven colleagues.
- Hybrid working: Work from home for part of the week.
- Unlimited holidays
- Leadership opportunities: Be part of the team shaping the company's goals and direction.
- Home office budget and laptop provided.
- Professional development budget for training, courses, or certifications.

If you thrive in an environment that values creativity, ownership, and mission-driven work, we'd love to hear from you!

Join Our Investment Management Team

We are excited to offer an opportunity to join our investment management team as a Associate. This role is ideal for someone eager to grow their career in investment management, working on meaningful and impactful projects across multiple asset classes, including real estate, private equity, and income-focused investments.

This position provides hands-on experience, direct mentorship from senior team members, and the chance to contribute to high-profile projects. If you're motivated, detail-oriented, and eager to learn, this could be the perfect role for you.

About the Role

As Associate, you will play a critical supporting role in the day-to-day operations of our investment management team. You'll assist in managing deals, preparing financial analyses, and supporting key functions across the investment lifecycle, contributing to the success of our ambitious growth plans.

What You'll Be Doing

- Supporting the investment team in originating and conducting due diligence on deals and funds.
- Assisting in the preparation of financial models and analyses to evaluate potential investment opportunities.
- Drafting investment documentation, including Investment Memorandums, reports, and presentations.
- Providing operational support for portfolio management, including monitoring performance and preparing regular updates.
- Assisting in the coordination with fund partners, legal advisors, and tax consultants to ensure smooth execution of transactions.

- Conducting market research and analysis to identify trends and opportunities within targeted asset classes.
- Supporting fundraising efforts by preparing marketing materials and contributing to investor communications.
- Collaborating with the content and marketing team to highlight investment opportunities and platform visibility.
- Helping to manage relationships with portfolio companies, fund partners, and other stakeholders.

What We're Looking For

- Experience: 1-2 years in finance, investment management, corporate finance, or a similar field is preferred, but we're open to strong candidates with less experience but high potential.
- Skillset: Proficiency in financial modeling and analysis. Strong attention to detail and ability to handle multiple tasks effectively.
- Knowledge: Familiarity with financial concepts and an understanding of investment processes. Experience or interest in real estate, private equity, or income-focused investments is a plus.
- Mindset: A proactive self-starter with a strong desire to learn and grow. Comfortable working in a fast-paced, dynamic environment.
- Collaboration: Excellent communication and interpersonal skills, with the ability to work well in a team.

Why Work With Us?

We're not your typical asset manager. There are no suits, face time requirements, or internal politics here. We're a mission-driven team that cares deeply about making a real impact—and we expect every team member to share that focus.

Benefits

- Competitive salary.
- A benefits package, including equity in the business.
- Generous self-development budget and an environment that encourages growth.
- Work on projects that have a real impact on society.
- Join a dynamic, fast-growing team of smart and driven professionals.
- Hybrid working: Work from home part of the week.
- Unlimited holidays to promote work-life balance.
- Fully equipped: Home office budget and laptop provided.
- Professional development budget for training, courses, or certifications.

If you thrive in an environment that values creativity, ownership, and mission-driven work, we'd love to hear from you!
