About the Ibrahim Khan Channel

The Ibrahim Khan Channel is a new and rapidly growing YouTube channel focused on exploring the cutting-edge trends shaping humanity's future. Our content covers transformative topics like climate change, AI, housing, defense technology, and other innovations that directly impact global civilization. We highlight visionary people and groundbreaking solutions addressing the world's most pressing problems, while uniquely bringing an investor's perspective.

Ibrahim Khan, a seasoned investor himself as CEO & Founder of Cur8 Capital, guides audiences through critical insights on why big challenges also create significant investment opportunities. Our storytelling combines deep research, captivating narratives, and visually compelling documentary-style editing—think channels like Cleo Abram, Johnny Harris, or Vox.

We're looking for a freelance video editor who is passionate about these vital topics, eager to explore creative storytelling, and able to translate complex ideas into engaging, impactful content.

Your Responsibilities:

- Edit approximately one high-quality docu-series style video per month (10-20 mins), one associated podcast episode, and associated short form content
- Craft visually stunning, engaging, and educational videos incorporating sophisticated motion graphics, engaging pacing, and immersive sound design.
- Actively collaborate with Ibrahim Khan and Production Manager, Mustafa Khan, contributing creatively to scripting and narrative decisions to enhance visual storytelling.
- Regularly share and implement ideas, provide pushback where necessary, and experiment creatively to consistently elevate our content.

- Occasionally join in-person site visits to gain deeper context and inspiration for editing.

What You'll Bring:

- Proven experience editing top-tier documentary-style content for YouTube (samples required).
- Exceptional visual storytelling skills and mastery in pacing, sound design, and video editing.
- Ability to take complex ideas and make them visually simple, engaging, and entertaining
- Familiarity with YouTube formats and best practices (hooks, pacing, retention tactics)
- Technical proficiency in editing software (Adobe Premiere Pro, Final Cut Pro, DaVinci Resolve, or similar).
- Familiarity with motion graphics is beneficial but not mandatory as long as you can deliver compelling visuals.
- A proactive, hands-on, collaborative approach—someone who thrives in creative discussions, experimentation, and iterative feedback processes.
- Flexibility and availability to collaborate closely with a UK-based team, comfortably working within UK time zones.
- Reliable, responsive, takes extreme ownership and open to feedback

Why You'll Love This Role:

- Competitive, project-based compensation with potential to transition into a full-time role for the right candidate.
- Freedom to creatively influence and shape impactful content addressing globally relevant issues.
- Opportunity to grow professionally within an ambitious, mission-driven team tackling crucial societal topics.
- Collaboration with engaged, passionate individuals who value experimentation, feedback, and continual improvement.

Application Process:

Apply by 15th June via this application form including:

- Your resume (PDF format).
- Portfolio links showcasing at least 2-3 relevant video editing samples—particularly docu-series or explainer formats similar to Cleo Abram, Johnny Harris, or Vox-style productions.
- A brief written note explaining your interest in the Ibrahim Khan Channel, your relevant editing experience, and why you're interested in this role.
- A short video (~2-3 minutes, Loom or similar) reviewing the first video from the Ibrahim Khan Channel (or similar style), providing insights on improving editing style, structure, pacing, storytelling, and visual creativity.

Shortlisted candidates will be invited for a live 60-minute collaboration session with Ibrahim Khan and Mustafa Khan on our next video ideas to further explore your approach, skills, and creative instincts.

We're excited to welcome a talented editor who will join us in exploring the critical issues shaping our collective future and help us inspire meaningful change.
